Federal Act on Intermediated Securities (Federal Intermediated Securities Act, FISA)

of 3 October 2008 (Status as of 1 January 2023)

The Federal Assembly of the Swiss Confederation, based on Articles 98 paragraph 1 and 122 paragraph 1 of the Federal Constitution¹, and having considered the Federal Council Dispatch dated 15 November 2006², decrees:

Chapter 1 Purpose, Scope and Definitions

Art. 1 Subject-matter and purpose

¹ This Act regulates the custody of certificated and uncertificated securities by custodians and their transfer.

² It ensures the protection of property rights of investors. It contributes to legal certainty in international contexts, to the efficient settlement of securities transactions and to the stability of the financial system.

Art. 2 Scope of application

¹ This Act applies to intermediated securities that are credited to a securities account by a custodian.

^{1bis} According to the terms and conditions set out in Article 31 paragraph 1, Article 31 paragraph 2 is applicable to intermediated securities held with a custodian in Switzerland or abroad, even if such custody is subject to foreign law.³

² It does not affect any provision regarding the registration of registered shares in the share register.

² BBl 2006 9315

³ Inserted by Annex No 8 of the FA of 17 Dec. 2021 (Insolvency and Deposit Insurance), in force since 1 Jan. 2023 (AS 2022 732; BBl 2020 6359).

Art. 3 Intermediated securities

¹ Intermediated securities within the meaning of this Act are personal or corporate rights of a fungible nature against an issuer which⁴:

- a. are credited to a securities account; and
- b. may be disposed of by the account holder in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

^{1bis} An intermediated security within the meaning of this Act shall also be deemed to be any financial instrument held in custody in accordance with foreign law and any right to such a financial instrument, if it has a comparable function in accordance with such foreign law.⁵

² Intermediated securities are effective against the custodian and any third party; they are beyond the reach of other creditors of the custodian.

Art. 4 Custodians

¹ A custodian within the meaning of this Act maintains securities accounts in the name of persons or groups of persons.

² The following are deemed to be custodians:

- a. banks within the meaning of the Banking Act of 8 November 1934⁶;
- b.⁷ securities firms within the meaning of Article 41 of the Financial Institutions Act of 15 June 2018⁸;
- c.⁹ fund management companies within the meaning of Article 32 of the Financial Institutions Act, insofar as they maintain unit accounts;
- d.¹⁰ central securities depositories within the meaning of Article 61 of the Financial Market Infrastructure Act of 19 June 2015¹¹;
- e. the Swiss National Bank within the meaning of the National Bank Act of 3 October 2003¹²;

⁴ Footnote not relevant to the English text.

h.²¹ ledger-based securities means rights within the meaning of Article 973d of the Code of Obligations.

Chapter 2 Creation, Extinction and Conversion of Intermediated Securities

Art. 6 Creation

- a. when a custodian accepts certificated securities for collective custody and credits them to one or more securities accounts;
- b. when a custodian accepts a global certificate for custody and credits the respective rights to one or more securities accounts;
- c.²² when a custodian registers uncertificated securities in the main register and credits the respective rights to one or more securities accounts; or
- d.²³ when ledger-based securities are transferred to a custodian and the respective rights are credited to one or more securities accounts.

² For each issue of uncertificated securities, a single custodian shall maintain the main register. The main register shall provide details of the issue, the quantity, and the nominal value of the uncertificated securities issued; it shall be public.²⁴

³ On being transferred to a custodian, the ledger-based securities shall be immobilised in the securities ledger.²⁵

Art. 7 Conversion

¹ Unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue or the issuer's articles of association, an issuer may, at any time and without the account holder's consent, convert certificated securities in collective custody, global certificates or uncertificated securities

²¹ Inserted by No 19 of the FA of 25 Sept. 2020 on the Adaptation of Federal Law to Developments in Distributed Ledger Technology, in force since 1 Feb. 2021 (AS 2021 33; BBl 2020 233).

²² Amended by No 19 of the FA of 25 Sept. 2020 on the Adaptation of Federal Law to Developments in Distributed Ledger Technology, in force since 1 Feb. 2021 (AS 2021 33; BBl 2020 233).

²⁴ Amended by No 19 of the FA of 25 Sept. 2020 on the Adaptation of Federal Law to Developments in Distributed Ledger Technology, in force since 1 Feb. 2021 (AS 2021 33; BBl 2020 233).

²⁵ Inserted by No 19 of the FA of 25 Sept. 2020 on the Adaptation of Federal Law to Developments in Distributed Ledger Technology, in force since 1 Feb. 2021 (AS 2021 33; BBl 2020 233).

held or registered as a basis for intermediated securities into another form.²⁶ It shall bear the conversion cost.

² Insofar as provided by the terms of issue or the issuer's articles of association, an account holder may at any time require the issuer to deliver certificated securities in the quantity and of the kind corresponding to intermediated securities credited to the account holder's securities account based on a global certificate or uncertificated securities.²⁷ The account holder shall bear the cost of this conversion unless the terms of issue or the issuer's articles of association provide otherwise.

³ The custodian shall ensure that the conversion of the securities does not alter the total number of the personal and corporate rights issued.

Art. 8 Extinction and delivery in general²⁸

¹ An account holder may at any time require the custodian to deliver certificated securities in the quantity and of the kind corresponding to intermediated securities credited to the account holder's securities account provided that:

- a. certificated securities are held by the custodian or a sub-custodian; or
- b. the account holder is entitled to delivery of certificated securities under Article 7 paragraph 2.

² The account holder shall be entitled to the delivery of certificated securities in accordance with the custom and usage of the market on which the securities are traded.

³ The custodian shall ensure that the delivery to the account holder occurs only after the corresponding securities have been debited to the latter's securities account.

Art. 8a²⁹ Delivery of bearer shares in companies limited by shares without listed equity securities

In the case of companies limited by shares without listed equity securities whose bearer shares are organised as intermediated securities, the custodian designated by the company in accordance with Article 697j paragraph 5 of the Code of Obligations³⁰ shall ensure that the securities are only delivered:

²⁹ Inserted by No I 4 of the FA of 21 June 2019 on the Implementation of the Recommendations of the Global Forum on Transparency and the Exchange of Information for Tax Purposes, in force since 1 Nov. 2019 (AS 2019 3161; BBl 2019 279).

- a. on the custodian ceasing its duties³¹: to the custodian in Switzerland designed as the replacement by the company;
- b. on the conversion of the bearer shares into registered shares: to the company;
- c. on the destruction of the bearer shares: to the company.

Chapter 3 Sub-Custody and Availability of Intermediated Securities

Art. 9 Authorisation for sub-custody

² The account holder's express consent is nonetheless required where the foreign sub-custodian is not subject to adequate regulatory supervision.

Art. 10 Effects

¹ A custodian credits to the securities account of its account holder the intermediated securities credited to its own securities account with a sub-custodian.

² If the custody of securities with a sub-custodian is not governed by this Act, the credit confers upon the account holder rights that are at least equal to the rights acquired by the custodian with the sub-custodian.

Art. 11 Available intermediated securities

¹ Each custodian shall hold with itself or with a sub-custodian intermediated securities (available securities) in a quantity and of a kind at least equal to the total of intermediated securities credited to the securities accounts of its account holders (credited securities).

² If the total number of available securities is less than the total number of credited securities, the custodian shall without delay acquire intermediated securities to the extent of the shortfall.

³ The following are deemed to be available securities:

- a. intermediated securities credited to a securities account held by the custodian with a sub-custodian;

³¹ Corrected by the Federal Assembly Drafting Committee (Art. 58 para. 1 ParlA; SR 171.10).

³² Amended by No 19 of the FA of 25 Sept. 2020 on the Adaptation of Federal Law to Developments in Distributed Ledger Technology, in force since 1 Feb. 2021 (AS 2021 33; BBl 2020 233).

- b.³³ certificated securities, ledger-based securities or global certificates that the custodian holds directly, or uncertificated securities entered in its main register; and
- c. readily available rights to delivery of intermediated securities from other custodians during the regulatory or customary settlement period for the corresponding market, provided that this period does not exceed eight days.

Art. 11a³⁴ Segregation

¹ The custodian shall record its own and its account holders' securities separately.

² If the custodian holds its own and its account holders' securities with a sub-custodian in Switzerland, it shall hold its own and its account holders' securities in separate securities accounts. Sub-custodians must offer custodians the possibility of holding their own and their account holders' securities in separate securities accounts.

³ If the securities are held abroad, the Swiss custodian and the first foreign sub-custodian shall agree that the latter will hold its own and the account holders' securities in separate accounts.

⁵ The Swiss custodian does not have to take measures in accordance with paragraph 4 if:

- a. owing to the characteristics of the relevant intermediated securities or the financial services relating to them, custody can take place only in the country concerned; or
- b. the account holder has instructed the custodian, in writing or in another form demonstrable by text, to hold the intermediated securities with a sub-custodian in that country.

⁶ The Swiss custodian that is holding its account holders' securities with a sub-custodian shall provide the account holders beforehand with information in hard copy or electronically and in a standardised manner. It shall state:

- a. that the securities will be held with a sub-custodian as a general rule;
- b. that, depending on the issuer, a sub-custodian may have its registered office abroad and that in this case the custody is subject to foreign law;
- c. that custody abroad carries risks for account holders, and what general risks are involved;
- d. the costs of the custody of intermediated securities.

³³ Amended by No I 9 of the FA of 25 Sept. 2020 on the Adaptation of Federal Law to Developments in Distributed Ledger Technology, in force since 1 Feb. 2021 (AS 2021 33; BBl 2020 233).

³⁴ Inserted by Annex No 8 of the FA of 17 Dec. 2021 (Insolvency and Deposit Insurance), in force since 1 Jan. 2023 (AS 2022 732; BBl 2020 6359).

Art. 11b³⁵ Data transmission to sub-custodians and other entities

² The custodian shall inform the account holders beforehand in written hard copy or electronically and in a standardised manner about the possibility of data transmission in accordance with paragraph 1 and about the fact that, depending on the applicable foreign law, client data may be passed on to the authorities of the relevant country.

Art. 12 Segregation of own securities and account holder securities

¹ If a custodian holds its own intermediated securities and those of its account holders with a sub-custodian, the intermediated securities of the account holders and their claims for delivery of intermediated securities shall not be affected by:³⁶

- a. a set-off agreement between the custodian and the sub-custodian to which the account holder is not a party;
- b.³⁷ any right of pledge, retention or foreclosure of the sub-custodian or of another person which goes beyond the custodian's right of retention and foreclosure in accordance with Article 21 and to which the account holder has not consented.

² The custodian may dispose of an account holder's intermediated securities only after having them transferred to its own account by exercising its right of use.

³ Any agreement to the contrary shall be invalid.

Chapter 4

Rights deriving from the Custody of Intermediated Securities

Section 1 General Rights of Account Holders

Art. 13 Principle

¹ The creation of intermediated securities does not affect the rights of investors against the issuer.

² Unless otherwise provided by this Act, account holders may exercise their rights only through their custodian.

³⁵ Inserted by Annex No 8 of the FA of 17 Dec. 2021 (Insolvency and Deposit Insurance), in force since 1 Jan. 2023 (AS 2022 732; BBl 2020 6359).

³⁶ Amended by Annex No 8 of the FA of 17 Dec. 2021 (Insolvency and Deposit Insurance), in force since 1 Jan. 2023 (AS 2022 732; BBl 2020 6359).

³⁷ Amended by Annex No 8 of the FA of 17 Dec. 2021 (Insolvency and Deposit Insurance), in force since 1 Jan. 2023 (AS 2022 732; BBl 2020 6359).

Art. 14 Seizure and attachment

² Any seizure, attachment, or other interim measure executed against an account holder in the hands of a sub-custodian shall be void.

Art. 15 Instructions

² The custodian shall not be obliged or entitled to verify the legal grounds for the instruction.

³ The account holder may revoke an instruction until the point in time provided in the contract with the custodian or in the applicable rules of the securities clearing and settlement system. An instruction shall in any case become irrevocable once the custodian has debited the account holder's securities account.

Art. 16 Statement

An account holder may at any time require its custodian to draw up a statement of the intermediated securities credited to its securities account. This statement is not a certificated security.

Section 2
Rights of Account Holders in the event of a Custodian's LiquidationArt. 17 Exclusion from custodian's estate

¹ If a custodian is subject to proceedings for compulsory liquidation, the liquidator shall exclude from the custodian's estate up to the number of intermediated securities credited to securities account maintained by the custodian for its account holders:

- a. intermediated securities credited to a securities account that the custodian holds with a sub-custodian;
- b.³⁸ certificated securities, ledger-based securities or global certificates that the custodian holds directly, or uncertificated securities entered in its main register; and ³⁸ Amended by No I 9 of the FA of 25 Sept. 2020 on the Adaptation of Federal Law to Developments in Distributed Ledger Technology, in force since 1 Feb. 2021 (AS 2021 33; BBl 2020 233).

- c. readily available claims of the custodian to receive delivery of intermediated securities from third parties resulting from spot transactions, expired futures transactions, hedging transactions, or issues on behalf of account holders.

² If the custodian does not hold its own securities and that of its account holders in separate securities accounts with a sub-custodian, the securities credited to those accounts shall be presumed to belong to the custodian's account holders.

³ The liquidator of a custodian shall satisfy claims of sub-custodians arising out of the custody of the intermediated securities or the financing of their acquisition.

⁴ Intermediated securities and claims for delivery of intermediated securities excluded from the custodian's estate shall be:

- a. transferred to the custodian designated by the account holder; or
- b.³⁹ delivered to the account holder in the form of certificated securities; or
- c.⁴⁰ transferred to the account holder in the form of ledger-based securities.

⁵ Claims of the custodian under Article 21 are reserved.

Art. 18 Exclusion from sub-custodian's estate

If a sub-custodian is subject to proceedings for compulsory liquidation, the custodian shall seek the exclusion of its account holders' intermediated securities from the sub-custodian's estate.

Art. 19 Shortfall

² If the account holders are still not fully satisfied, they shall bear the shortfall in proportion to the number of intermediated securities of the missing kind credited to their respective securities accounts. They shall have a corresponding claim for compensation against the custodian.

Art. 20 Finality of instructions

An instruction issued by a custodian which is a participant in a securities clearing or settlement system shall be legally binding and effective against third parties even in the event of debt enforcement proceedings against that custodian, provided that:

³⁹ Amended by No 19 of the FA of 25 Sept. 2020 on the Adaptation of Federal Law to Developments in Distributed Ledger Technology, in force since 1 Feb. 2021 (AS 2021 33; BBl 2020 233).

⁴⁰ Amended by No 19 of the FA of 25 Sept. 2020 on the Adaptation of Federal Law to Developments in Distributed Ledger Technology, in force since 1 Feb. 2021 (AS 2021 33; BBl 2020 233).

- a. the instruction was entered into the system before the commencement of such proceedings; or
- b. it was entered into the system after the commencement of such proceedings and carried out on the day of commencement, if the system operator can prove that it was not aware, and should not have been aware, of the commencement of such proceedings.

Section 3 Rights of a Custodian in Intermediated Securities

Art. 21 Right of retention and foreclosure

¹ A custodian shall be entitled to retain and foreclose on intermediated securities credited to a securities account, provided a debt owed by the account holder is due and arises from the custody of the intermediated securities or the financing of their acquisition.

² The right of retention and foreclosure shall cease when the custodian credits the intermediated securities to the account of another account holder.

Art. 22 Right of use

¹ An account holder may authorise its custodian to dispose of its intermediated securities in its own name and on its own account, in particular to grant a security interest in the same.

² Unless the account holder is a qualified investor, authorisation must be granted in writing. It may not be included in general terms and conditions.

Art. 23 Return of collateral

¹ If an account holder has granted a security interest to a custodian, and the custodian has exercised a right of use by creating a security interest, the custodian shall return to the account holder intermediated securities in the same quantity and of the same kind no later than the due date for the performance of the secured obligation.

² These intermediated securities shall be subject to the same security interest as the original security interest, and shall be treated as if they had been provided at the same time as the original security interest.

³ To the extent provided by the security agreement with the account holder, the custodian may realise the intermediated securities in accordance with Article 31 instead of returning them.

Art. 23a⁴¹ Passing on of information

The custodian designated by a company limited by shares under Article 697*i* paragraph 4 or Article 697*j* paragraph 3 of the Code of Obligations⁴² must ensure that on request downstream custodians pass on the following information:

- a. the first name and surname or business name and address of the shareholder; and
- b. the first name and surname and address of the beneficial owner.

Chapter 5

Disposition of Intermediated Securities and Effectiveness against Third Parties

Section 1 Disposition of Intermediated Securities

Art. 24 Credit⁴³

¹ A disposition of intermediated securities may be effected by:

- a. an instruction from the account holder to its custodian to transfer the intermediated securities; and
- b. a credit of the intermediated securities to the acquirer's securities account.

² The disposition shall be complete when the necessary credit has been made and has become effective against third parties. If the full legal rights are transferred as a result of the disposition, the transferor shall lose its rights in the intermediated securities.⁴⁴

³ The foregoing is without prejudice to the provisions governing acquisition by virtue of universal succession or debt enforcement.

⁴ This Article does not affect restrictions on the transfer of registered shares. Any other restriction is be ineffective against the transferee or third parties.

Art. 25⁴⁵ Control agreement

⁴¹ Inserted by No 18 of the Federal Act of 12 Dec. 2014 on the Implementation of the revised recommendations 2012 of the Financial Action Task Force, in force since 1 July 2015 (AS 2015 1389; BBl 2014 605).

⁴³ Amended by Annex No 14 of the Financial Market Infrastructure Act of 19 June 2015, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 5339; BBl 2014 7483).

⁴⁴ Amended by Annex No 14 of the Financial Market Infrastructure Act of 19 June 2015, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 5339; BBl 2014 7483).

⁴⁵ Amended by Annex No 14 of the Financial Market Infrastructure Act of 19 June 2015, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 5339; BBl 2014 7483).

² The act of disposal may relate to:

- a. specific intermediated securities;
- b. all intermediated securities credited to a securities account; or
- c. a proportion of the intermediated securities credited to a securities account up to a specified value.

Art. 26⁴⁶ Agreement with the custodian

² Article 25 paragraph 2 applies.

Section 2 Reversal

Art. 27 Reversal of a debit

¹ A debit to a securities account must be reversed if:

- a. it was made without instructions;
- b. it was made on the basis of an instruction that:
 1. is void,
 2. was not issued by the account holder or the latter's agent,
 3. was revoked in due time by the account holder, or
 4. was voided on the ground of mistake, erroneous transmission, fraud or duress; Article 26 of the Code of Obligations⁴⁷ is reserved;
- c. the credit of intermediated securities to the acquirer's securities account does not correspond to the instruction or is not executed within the customary settlement period.

² In the event of a reversal under paragraph 1 letter a or b, the account holder must prove that the instruction was defective. There is no right to reversal if the custodian proves that it did not know the defect in the instruction and could not be expected to know such defect despite the application of reasonable measures and procedures.

³ The reversal shall place the account holder in the same position as if the debit had never been made. Claims for damages under the provisions of the Code of Obligations are reserved.

⁴ Claims based on this Article become time-barred three years after the defect is discovered, or at the latest ten years after the date on which debit was made.⁴⁸

⁴⁶ Amended by Annex No 14 of the Financial Market Infrastructure Act of 19 June 2015, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 5339; BBl 2014 7483).

⁴⁸ Amended by Annex No 29 of the FA of 15 June 2018 (Revision of the Law of Prescription), in force since 1 Jan. 2020 (AS 2018 5343; BBl 2014 235).

⁵ An account holder who is a qualified investor may derogate from this Article by entering into an agreement with the custodian.

Art. 28 Reversal of a credit

¹ A custodian may reverse a credit of intermediated securities to a securities account if:

- a. the corresponding debit was reversed; or
- b. the credit does not correspond to the instruction.

² The account holder shall be notified of the reversal.

³ A credit may not be reversed where intermediated securities of the same kind are no longer credited to that securities account or where third parties acting in good faith have acquired rights in those intermediated securities. In such cases the custodian shall have a claim for damages unless the account holder has disposed of the securities in good faith or had no reason to expect a demand for restitution when disposing of them.

⁴ Claims based on this Article become time-barred three years after the defect is discovered, or at the latest ten years after the date on which the credit was made.⁴⁹

⁵ An account holder who is a qualified investor may derogate from this Article by entering into an agreement with the custodian.

Section 3 Effectiveness against Third Parties

Art. 29 Protection of the bona fide purchaser

¹ A person who acquires intermediated securities under Articles 24, 25 or 26 for value and in good faith shall be protected in respect of the acquisition even where:

- a. the transferor had no power or authority to transfer the intermediated securities; or
- b. the credit of intermediated securities to the transferor's securities account was reversed.

² An acquirer who is not so protected is under a duty to make restitution of intermediated securities in the same quantity and of the same kind pursuant to the provisions of the Code of Obligations⁵⁰ on unjust enrichment. The rights of third parties are not affected. The foregoing is without prejudice to other claims based on the Code of Obligations.

⁴⁹ Amended by Annex No 29 of the FA of 15 June 2018 (Revision of the Law of Prescription), in force since 1 Jan. 2020 (AS 2018 5343; BBI 2014 235).

⁴ Claims based on this paragraph 2 become time barred three years after the holder of the debited account becomes aware of its rights and of the identity of its debtor, or at the latest ten years after the debit date. Article 60 paragraph 2 of the Swiss Code of Obligations is reserved.⁵¹

⁵ Where the conditions for reversal of a credit under Article 28 are met, the acquirer may not object to the reversal on the basis of this Article.

Art. 30 Priorities

¹ Where intermediated securities or interests in intermediated securities are disposed of pursuant to provisions of this Act, the disposition first in time shall prevail over further dispositions.

² If the custodian has entered into an agreement with the account holder under Article 25 paragraph 1 without notifying the acquirer expressly of its rights created earlier, its right shall be deemed to be subordinated to the right of the acquirer.⁵²

⁴ The foregoing is without prejudice to agreements to modify the priorities of rights over intermediated securities, but such agreements are effective only as between the parties bound by them.

Chapter 6 Realisation of Collateral

Art. 31 Power to realise collateral

¹ The secured party may realise intermediated securities in which a security interest has been created according to the terms and conditions stipulated in the security agreement by:

- a. selling the intermediated securities and offsetting the proceeds against the secured debt; or
- b. appropriating the intermediated securities whose value can be determined objectively and offsetting their value against the secured debt.⁵⁴

² This power is not affected by the commencement of debt enforcement, reorganisation or protective proceedings in respect of the provider of the security interest.

³ The custodian is not bound or entitled to verify whether the conditions for realisation of the intermediated securities are fulfilled.

⁵¹ Amended by Annex No 29 of the FA of 15 June 2018 (Revision of the Law of Prescription), in force since 1 Jan. 2020 (AS 2018 5343; BBl 2014 235).

⁵² Amended by Annex No 14 of the Financial Market Infrastructure Act of 19 June 2015, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 5339; BBl 2014 7483).

⁵³ Repealed by Annex No 14 of the Financial Market Infrastructure Act of 19 June 2015, with effect from 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 5339; BBl 2014 7483).

⁵⁴ Amended by Annex No 14 of the Financial Market Infrastructure Act of 19 June 2015, in force since 1 Jan. 2016 (AS 2015 5339; BBl 2014 7483).

⁴ The foregoing is without prejudice to the liability of the beneficiary of a security interest who realises intermediated securities where the conditions for realisation are not fulfilled.

Art. 32 Notice and accounts

¹ The secured party shall give notice to the provider of the security interest before realisation. A provider of a security interest who is a custodian or a qualified investor may waive the notice requirement.

² The secured party shall account to the provider of the security interest and remit to the latter any excess proceeds of the realisation.

Chapter 7 Liability

Art. 33

¹ A custodian shall be liable for the loss caused to an account holder in relation to the custody or transfer of intermediated securities, pursuant to the provisions of the Code of Obligations⁵⁵, unless otherwise provided in this Article.

² A custodian which is authorised to hold intermediated securities with a sub-custodian shall be liable for any failure to exercise due care in the selection and instruction of the sub-custodian and in verifying its continued compliance with the selection criteria.

³ A custodian may waive its liability under paragraph 2 if the account holder has expressly designated the sub-custodian contrary to the custodian's advice.

⁴ A custodian shall be liable, as if they were its own, for the acts of a sub-custodian which:

- a. independently and over a long period of time administers and settles all securities transactions on behalf of the custodian; or
- b. is part of the same economic entity as the custodian.

⁵ Agreements to the contrary shall be valid only as between custodians or when made in favour of investors.

Chapter 8 Final Provisions

Art. 34 Amendments to existing law

Amendments to existing law are contained in the Annex hereto.

⁵⁵ SR 220

Art. 35 Transitional provisions

² If, before this Act comes into force, certificated securities in collective deposit, global certificates, or uncertificated securities held by a custodian are disposed of in a manner that fails to comply with the requirements of this Act, the right thus created shall prevail over any right created after the commencement date of the Act provided that the beneficiary effects the book entries required by the Act or causes them to be effected within 12 months after the commencement date hereof.

Art. 36 Referendum and commencement

¹ This Act is subject to an optional referendum.

² The Federal Council shall set the commencement date.

Commencement date:⁵⁶ 1 January 2010

Art. 470 para. 2^{bis} of the Code of Obligations (No 3 of Annex): 1 October 2009

⁵⁶ FCD of 6 May 2009.
